

KATHERINE BAMBRICK AMBROZIAK

Assistant Professor
Area of specialization:
symbolic space and ritual

% Time: 100

Education	Master of Architecture, Princeton University	1996
	Bachelor of Architecture, University of Virginia Design Award	1992
Academic Experience	University of Tennessee College of Architecture & Design	2002- PRESENT
	Design Fundamentals I, Design Fundamentals II Architectural Design I, Architectural Design II Principles of Architectural Form Grand Tour: Switzerland, Swiss Sketchbook: The Necessity for Seeing
	University of Virginia, School of Architecture	1993
	Explorations in Architecture and Landscape Architecture Summer Program University of Virginia, Teaching Assistant	1991, 1992

	Princeton University, ACS Interviewer	2005-PRESENT
	Juror, Princeton University	2000, 2001
	Juror, University of Virginia	1999, 2005
Creative Work	Second Harvest Food Bank of East Tennessee	2007
	Big South Fork Visitor Center Interior Design	2007
	Stockholm City Library Design Competition	2006
	Huntsville Masterplan, University of Tennessee Cultural Arts Center	2005
	Hanselmann Revisited Theoretical Design Project	2005
	Flight 93 Memorial Design Competition	2005
	Worcester Fire Fighters Memorial Design Competition	2005
	St. Mark's Coptic Canadian Village design Competition	2003
	San Jose Museum of Art Design Competition	2003
	Pentagon Memorial Design Competition	2002
	San Francisco State University Gate Design Competition	1999
	Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument Design Competition	1998
	Artworks of Trenton Design Competition	1997
	Bridging: a Place for Architecture International Design Competition	1997
	World War II National Memorial Design Competition, Stage II	1996
Honors	St. Mark's Coptic Canadian Village Design Competition, Finalist	2003
	San Francisco State University Gate Design Competition, Honorable Mention	1999
	Artworks of Trenton Design Competition, Finalist	1997
	Princeton Township Municipal Complex Design Competition, First Prize with Kehrt Shatken Sharon Architects	1997
	Bridging: a Place for Architecture International Design Competition, Finalist	1997
	World War II National Memorial Design Competition, Finalist, Stage II Invitation	1996
	Design Award, University of Virginia	1992
Exhibited	Stockholm City Library Design Competition	2006
	Bangardsposten Klarasbergsviadukten 63 in Stockholm, Sweden
	"Swiss Sketchbook: The Necessity for Seeing," University of Tennessee College of Architecture and Design, Study Abroad Program Exhibit	2006
	"Brian Ambroziak and Katherine Bambrick Ambroziak: Select Work," University of Tennessee College of Architecture and Design	2003
	Verona Ex-cava Design Competition Submission, USA Institute, Verona, Italy	1998
	Bridging: A Place for Architecture International Design Competition Submission, Hangar 7 of the Old Port of Montreal, Quebec	1997
	Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument Design Competition Submission, Denver Museum of History, Denver, Colorado	1997
	World War II National Memorial Design Competition, Phase II Submission Mellon Auditorium, Washington, D.C.	1997
	Princeton University Select Graduate Work, Princeton University School of Architecture	1996
Lectures / Presentations	"Brian Ambroziak and Katherine Bambrick Ambroziak: Select Work," University of Tennessee College of Architecture and Design Colloquial Lunch Series	2003
	National World War II Memorial Symposium, Rhode Island School of Design	1997
University Service	Chancellor's Honors Program faculty mentor	2006-PRESENT
College Service	University of Tennessee College of Architecture and Design
	Robert B. Church III Memorial Lecture Series Committee, Chair	2004-PRESENT
	College Undergraduate Curriculum Committee	2006-PRESENT
	Honors, Awards and Scholarships Committee	2006-PRESENT
	Environmental Semester Representative	2005